

CONVERSATION STARTERS

1. This is the dialog to your English life. Write what you will say, and talk about what you wrote.
2. This is NOT an interview. If a conversation starts, go with it. Conversation is KING.

1. How many people are there in your family? Where were you born? Where do you live now?
There are five in my family: my grandmother, father, mother, my older sister, and me.

2. Who's the oldest among your siblings? How old is your brother? Your sister?
I am the last of three children. My sister is 24. Our age gap is four years.

3. Is your extended family big (aunt, uncles, cousins, everybody)?
Yes. I have four uncles and four aunts on both my mother's and father's sides.

4. What does your father do? How long has he worked there?
My father is a high school math teacher in Mok-dong. He's worked there since forever.

5. Does your mother work? What does she do?
Not anymore. She was a nurse before she got married. She's studying to be a real estate agent.

6. What school or university do your brothers or sisters go to?
My older brother works for Samsung, and my younger sister goes to Yonsei.

7. Are you close to your brother or sister? Who is smarter? Better-looking?
I'm close to my sister, but not my brother. He's eight years older than me.

8. Are you more like [similar to] your father or mother? Looks? Personality? Build?
I think that I am more like my mother. We are both shy and artistic.

Really? No kidding! No way! Me too! Kind of. It depends.

What about you?
