

CONVERSATION STARTERS

1. This is the dialog to your English life. Write what you will say, and then talk about what you wrote.
2. This is NOT an interview. If a conversation starts, go with it. Conversation is KING.

1. When were you born? Where do you live now? How do you get to school?

I was born in 1990 in Masan. We moved to Seoul five years ago. I live in Imun-dong.

2. What is your major? What year are you?

My major is law. / I am majoring in law. I'm a sophomore.

3. How many hours are you taking? How many courses are you taking?

I'm taking eighteen hours—six courses. Three are major courses, two are required, and one is elective.

4. Are you a morning person or an evening person? What time is your curfew?

I'm an evening person. I hate to get up early in the morning. My curfew is 11 p.m. during the week.

5. What do you like to do on the weekends? Are you a couch potato?

On the weekends, I like to relax and hang out with my friends. (You hang out. You don't play.)

6. Do you belong to a club or organization? Are you a joiner or a loner?

Yes, I belong to a computer club at school. Mostly it's for computer majors.

7. Are you good with computers? What kind of phone do you have?

I'm a techie. I'm good with writing programs, and I'm learning C+. And I know Photoshop.

8. Are you more like your father or mother? In appearance? In personality?

Half and half. I'm more like my mother in appearance, but more like my father in personality.

Really? No kidding. No way! Me too! Kind of. It depends.

What about you?
