

SCOPE AND SEQUENCE

UNIT	 SPEAKING	 VOCABULARY	 GRAMMAR & PRONUNCIATION
Useful Classroom Language Pages 2–3	Key phrases for classroom interaction and learning
1 Nice to meet you! Pages 4–9	• Conversation: Introducing yourself • Speaking: A class activity on countries around the world • Smart Talk: Who's that? (p. 84, 96)	Greetings	• Grammar: The present tense of be • Pronunciation: Syllable stress
2 What do you do? Pages 10–15	• Conversation: Talking about personal information • Speaking: A class activity on jobs • Smart Talk: What do they do? (p. 85, 97)	Jobs	• Grammar: Common wh- questions • Pronunciation: Reduction of do you
3 Do you like spicy food? Pages 16–21	• Conversation: Talking about likes and dislikes • Speaking: A class activity on foods around the world • Smart Talk: Does he like fish? (p. 86, 98)	Food and drink	• Grammar: The simple present • Pronunciation: Question intonation
REVIEW Units 1–3 Pages 22–23	Conversation: Two people meeting for the first time Reading: "City Spotlight: Meet New York's best new chef!"
4 How often do you do yoga? Pages 24–29	• Conversation: Talking about habits and routines • Speaking: A class survey about sports and exercise • Smart Talk: How often? (p. 87, 99)	Sports and exercise	• Grammar: Frequency adverbs and time expressions • Pronunciation: Final s sounds
5 What are you watching? Pages 30–35	• Conversation: Describing everyday activities • Speaking: A class cell phone game • Smart Talk: What is he doing? (p. 88, 100)	Everyday activities	• Grammar: The present continuous • Pronunciation: Reduction of what is and what are
6 Where were you yesterday? Pages 36–41	• Conversation: Talking about past events • Speaking: A class survey on past activities • Smart Talk: Where were they? (p. 89, 101)	Problems	• Grammar: The past tense of be • Pronunciation: Reduction of t in wasn't and weren't
REVIEW Units 4–6 Pages 42–43	Conversation: A friend making excuses to another Reading: "Early Birds"		