

2 SPEAKING

A Put the conversation in order. Number the sentences 1–6.

- | | |
|---|---------------------------------------|
| ___ Mostly paintings. | ___ In high school. |
| ___ Really? Where did you do it? | ___ Yes, I have. |
| ___ Have you ever done arts and crafts? | ___ What did you make in high school? |

CD 1-04

B Listen to the conversation. Then practice with a partner.

SPEAKING Asking follow-up questions

Begin follow-up questions with words like Where...? and When...? to get more information and to show interest.

ONLINE PRACTICE

- Carrie: Have you ever eaten Korean food?
 Lucas: Yes, I have.
 Carrie: Where did you have it?
 Lucas: In South Korea. It's a little spicy, but I loved it.
 Carrie: When did you go there?
 Lucas: Two years ago. I went there with my parents and sister.
 Carrie: Did you have a good time?
 Lucas: Yes, I did. It's a very interesting country with great food.

C Work in pairs. Practice the conversation below with your own information. Ask follow-up questions.

- A: Have you ever eaten _____?
 B: Yes, _____.
 A: Where did you have it?
 B: In _____.
 A: Did you like it?

CD 1-05

D Pronunciation Question intonation Listen and repeat. In Yes/No questions, the intonation goes up. In Wh- questions, the intonation goes down.

- | | |
|------------------------------|----------------------|
| 1. Did you have a good time? | 3. Where did you go? |
| 2. Do you like Thai food? | 4. What did you eat? |

CULTURE TALK!

In South Korea, many people love spicy food. Do you like spicy food? What kinds of food taste better when they're spicy?

